This event features keynote speaker Jaiya John, founder of Soul Water Rising (soulwater.org) author, poet, youth mentor and advocate. Jaiya has addressed thousands of youth, across the United States and internationally, and from all backgrounds, always with the intent of stirring the soul to remember itself.

At this event Jaiya will facilitate a peer-teaching discussion honoring personal truth through storytelling and life-visioning while conducting sacred youth circles. These circles are based on African and Indigenous cultural traditions emphasizing communal gathering, honoring of voice, compassionate listening, loving speech, personal reflection, and the power of story.
